

Tennessee's Early Literacy Month - September 2019 Social Media Content Outline

WHEN?

- September 2019: Celebrating Tennessee's Early Literacy Month the whole month of September, highlighting early literacy efforts and initiatives across the state. During September, we hope you will share one of our #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth posts and participate in the #GotCaughtReading social media challenge, and encourage others to do so, too!

WHERE?

- Social Media—Facebook, Twitter, Instagram

WHAT?

- There are 3 ways to participate:
 1. Share one of our #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth posts on your personal, business or organizational social media accounts. Choose any of our posts to share each week in September.
 - a. Tag Governor's Books from Birth Foundation (@TNImaginationLibrary).
 - b. Use the hashtag #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth.
 2. Log the number of minutes you read with your children during TN's Early Literacy Month. We know that reading with your children for at least 20 minutes a day can increase your child's vocabulary, increase your bond with your child and lead to early literacy skills development and success in school. You can log your minutes using this link <http://bit.ly/gbbfreadingpoll2019> or participate in the poll pinned to the top of our Facebook page. We hope everyone will participate so we can share the total number of minutes read all across the state during TN's Early Literacy Month!
 3. Post your #GotCaughtReading picture on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram. Be sure to tag us and use the hashtags #GotCaughtReading (#GCR) and #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth. The picture can be of your child(ren) reading an Imagination Library book, you with your child(ren) reading, or even a fun picture of you and your co-workers reading an Imagination Library book. Videos are welcome, too! In addition to sharing these photos and videos on GBBF's social media outlets, we will also select three #GCR posts to win some Imagination Library goodies! <http://bit.ly/gbbfearlyliteracy2019>

Week One: Storybook Trails & Early Literacy (September 1 - 7, 2019)

-  I/We are/am celebrating #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth with Governor's Books from Birth Foundation (GBBF). To strengthen early literacy in Tennessee, GBBF provides families with the tools and resources to read with their children from birth. Programs like Storybook Trails emphasize the benefits of early literacy and encourage families to engage with their child around reading. <http://bit.ly/gbbfstorybooktrails> #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth #TNImagination #TNEarlyLiteracy #TNStorybooktrails

-  #DidYouKnow There are nine Storybook Trails open in Tennessee with seven more coming this fall. In partnership with parks and outdoor areas, Governor's Books from Birth Foundation Storybook Trails tell a nature-themed story on signs placed at a child's height throughout a short trail at a park. The trails feature reading tips on each page panel to bring the book to life with the surrounding nature. In addition to promoting early literacy and caregiver engagement, Storybook Trails encourage families to connect with nature and engage in a healthy, outdoor activity. Week Two: Mobile Book Buses & Early Literacy (September 8 - 14, 2019)

-  It is #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth with Governor's Books from Birth Foundation (GBBF). In addition to Tennessee's Imagination Library, GBBF partners with community organizations to provide programs and resources that strengthen early literacy. Mobile Book Buses emphasize the importance of early literacy and provide continued access to books and reading material to participating families, businesses, communities and educators. <http://bit.ly/gbbfbookbuses> #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth #TNImagination #TNearlyliteracy #mobilebookbuses
-  With support from the Appalachian Regional Commission and several Northeast Tennessee School Systems, Governor's Books from Birth Foundation (GBBF) Mobile Literacy Units, or "Book Buses" strengthen early literacy and work to prevent the "Summer Slide" in students. The bus programs travel into high poverty neighborhoods during the summer months providing books, literacy rich activities, and, in some cases, free meals or a snack to the families living in these communities. <http://bit.ly/gbbfbookbuses> #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth #TNImagination #TNEarlyLiteracy #mobilebookbuses

Week Four: Birthing Hospital Initiative & Early Literacy (September 22 - 28, 2019)

-  Celebrate #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth with Governor's Books from Birth Foundation (GBBF)! GBBF's Birthing Hospital Initiative strengthens early literacy by partnering with hospitals across the state to introduce Tennessee's Imagination Library program to families of newborns. Connecting with caregivers at the time of a child's birth allows GBBF to engage families as early as possible in reading with their children during the most critical time of a child's brain development. <http://bit.ly/gbbfbirthinghospital> #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth #TNImagination #TNEarlyLiteracy #birthinghospitalinitiative
-  To emphasize the benefits of early literacy and reading with children beginning at birth, Governor's Books from Birth Foundation (GBBF) launched the Birthing Hospital Initiative in 2014, partnering with hospitals across the state to introduce Tennessee's Imagination Library program to families of newborns. Twenty-four birthing hospitals are now participating in the birthing hospital initiative statewide. <http://bit.ly/gbbfbirthinghospital> #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth #TNImagination #TNEarlyLiteracy #birthinghospitalinitiative
-  There are 24 hospitals participating in Governor's Books from Birth Foundation's (GBBF) Birthing Hospital Initiative, enrolling newborns into Tennessee's Imagination Library. @TNImagination <http://bit.ly/gbbfbirthinghospital> #TNEarlyLiteracyMonth #TNEarlyLiteracy #birthinghospitalinitiative
